

This quiz is based on the reading from the chapter from Welfel on Ethics and Trull p 78-81. If you are not sure of an answer, make your selection and briefly write your reasoning in the margins or on the back of the quiz. Questions are worth 1 point each. Please circle your answer and place the letter you chose as your final answer in the blank to the left of the question.

- ___1. The most recent revision of the APA ethics code was published in
 - a. 1999
 - b. 2002
 - c. 1982
 - d. 1972

- ___2. According to APA ethical principles,
 - a. clinicians with doctoral degrees can simply present themselves as “Doctor” and need not specify the nature of their training
 - b. a clinician with a Ph.D. in clinical psychology may use any treatment or assessment procedure available, even if they have not been specifically trained in it
 - c. dual relationships, which can cause exploitation or harm of the client, are to be avoided
 - d. all of the above

- ___3. In the Tarasoff case, the California Supreme Court ruled that
 - a. the therapist should not have broken confidentiality at all
 - b. the therapist’s actions were ideal
 - c. the therapist should have warned additional people
 - d. the therapy conducted with the client caused the crime to be committed

- ___4. The following is not one of the reasons psychologists rely on science according to Welfel
 - a. It separates psychologists from charlatans or snake oil sales people.
 - b. It allows people to point to a body of literature that shows some treatments are effective.
 - c. It helps us to not take advantage of gullible people.
 - d. It dictates what is and what is not ethical.

- ___5. Moral sensitivity helps us as therapists
 - a. realize that we should examine cultural variables
 - b. examine the implications of our behavior on clients, colleagues, and the public
 - c. to act ethically at all times
 - d. none of the above

- ___6. One of the reasons therapists tell clients that there are limits of confidentiality is
 - a. to trick them into saying what they don’t want to say
 - b. to make them tell therapists what must be told
 - c. to let clients know that what they say may or may not be kept confidential
 - d. to show that therapists are morally superior

- ___7. Codes of ethics are designed to
 - a. guide therapists in the most complex cases
 - b. guide therapists to avoid common pitfalls in practice
 - c. define why certain actions like having a sexual relationship with a client is not appropriate
 - d. define what is illegal and unethical

- ___8. The most common complaint to state licensing boards for counselors concerns
 - a. practicing without a license
 - b. sexual misconduct
 - c. not knowing the ethical guidelines
 - d. none of the above

- ___9. True or False: Male therapists are more likely to engage in sexual misconduct than female therapists
 - a. True
 - b. False

- ___10. Clients who have been sexually exploited by therapists have
 - a. committed suicide or undergone hospitalization
 - b. suffered additional psychological distress
 - c. have long-lasting problems
 - d. all of the above